Notice to New York Residents

New York Residents may contact the New York State department of financial services by telephone or visit its website for free information on comparative credit rates, fees and grace periods. New York State Department of Financial Services: 1-800-342-3736 or <http://www.dfs.ny.gov>.

Notice—Important Information About Procedures for Opening a New Account

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, telephone number, social security number and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask for your driver's license or other identifying documents.

Information About Applying for a Credit Card

When you sign or otherwise submit a credit application, you are providing your consent and authorizing TD Bank USA, N.A. and its successors, assigns, employees and designated agents to gather credit, salary, employment and other information about you, including credit bureau reports, for purposes of evaluating your application for credit. If your application is approved and credit is extended to you, we may take steps to re-verify any or all of such information from time to time, including by obtaining additional credit bureau reports, for any legitimate purpose in connection with such extension of credit, such as for the purpose of reviewing the account, increasing the credit line on the account, or for collecting on the account. In addition, we will furnish information concerning your account to consumer reporting agencies and others who may properly receive that information. If you ask, you will be informed whether or not a consumer report was requested, and if a report was requested, you will be informed upon request of the name and address of the consumer reporting agency that furnished the report. When you submit a credit application to us, you are certifying that you have not concealed essential information for determining your identity and creditworthiness, and that no misrepresentations have been made on the application. If approved, you agree to abide by the terms and conditions applicable to the account.

Information for Residents of Specific StatesNotice to California Residents

Married applicants may apply for separate accounts.

Notice to Delaware Residents

Service charges not in excess of those permitted by law will be charged on the outstanding balances from month to month.

Notice to Ohio Residents

The Ohio Laws against discrimination require that all creditors make credit equally available to all creditworthy customers, and that credit reporting agencies maintain separate credit histories on each individual upon request. The Ohio Civil Rights Commission administers compliance with this law.
